FRESH CUT FLOWER CLAIMS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

While Continental Flowers Inc., takes every possible measure to ship our customers orders with accuracy and the freshest flowers there may be occasions for our customers to make a product claim for a credit and/or a return. Should you encounter a problem with your shipment of flowers from Continental Flowers, Inc. please prepare for your call to us by using the following guidelines.

1. All flowers must be inspected upon their arrival for shipping errors or product damage. Any problems with your flower shipment must be reported to your sales representative within 24 hours of the arrival of your flower shipment.
2. If you wish to make a product claim you may do so by fax, (305) 594-4215 or you may call (800) 327-2715. When reporting your claim by fax or by telephone be sure to provide your invoice number, the invoice date, and the name of the transportation company who was responsible for shipping the product to you. Please include the box number.
3. Once you have reported your claim to Continental Flowers Inc., a Control number will be issued to you. This Control Number is not a credit but an acknowledgement of your reported claim.
4. No credit will be issued unless a written request for credit with the Control Number on it has been received by our office within 10 days from the date of issue of your Control Number.
5. The flower products for which you are making a claim must be kept in their original packaging and must be held in storage appropriate to the flowers, until we decide to have the product returned to us for our inspection or if we wish for you to discard the damaged goods.
6. Continental Flowers Inc., will pay the freight on all authorized product returns.
7. Should Continental Flowers Inc., decide not to have the product returned to us, we ask for the help of our customer in keeping flower costs down by salvaging all saleable flowers within the box or boxes of flowers in which the problem was discovered. If you deem some of the flowers to be saleable we will then pro-rate the authorized credit to you. Your cooperation in this effort is greatly appreciated.
8. When reporting a product claim, please be as specific as possible when describing the problem found with shipment of flower products. This will ensure that the problem is reported accurately to the grower in question and will help us to prevent shipping you product with future possible problems.
9. If your product claim has been approved for credit, a credit memo will then be processed and mailed to you. Absolutely, no claim will be allowed if filed after 10 days from the date of receipt of product.
10. Do not deduct a credit from your payment unless a credit memo has been issued to you.
11. Continental Flowers Inc., is not responsible for any flowers problems due to the negligence of a third party. Transportation delays must be handled directly with the freight carrier. The freight carrier will also be held responsible for boxes missing from your shipment if the number of boxes invoiced by Continental Flowers Inc., match the number of boxes shown to have been received by the freight carrier.
